A-34—RIO GRANDE AND VOLCANOES
AS SEEN FROM AIR BASE,
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.

Looking west from the T. W. A. Airport and U. S. Army Air Base you have a magnificent view of the Rio Grande, its two bridges, part of the Santa Fe shops and the Semi-arid Desert on the west side near the extinct volcanoes—the Rio Grande valley, however, being one of the most fertile in the Southwest.
